

Smart solutions for data collection on the go

Urovo Technologies is a world leader in the production of PDA-type mobile terminals for retail, catering, logistics and industry.

The last five years of the company have been filled with intense investment activity in development to design and offer to the market a range of innovative touch screen PDA mobile terminals, with a series of exclusive applications.

