

More time for cooking

How much time does weekly menu planning take you? Creating paper lists, finding products in a catalog, laying out all the promotions and the current product range - and suddenly hours have passed. With HOGA, you can create digital lists and view the availability and prices of products on a daily basis.

Process optimization
through organized purchasing using order lists.

All suppliers on one platform with daily updated prices and delivery dates.

Order online and via app with all common browsers as well as in iOS and Android.

Cost of goods at the touch of a button through digital delivery notes and goods receipt inspection with HOGA-Check.

Take inventory faster with an app - no internet needed in the basement.

Digitalisieren Sie Ihr Bestellwesen.
